The Jewish Federation of the Greater San Gabriel and Pomona Valleys' Cultural Arts Program presents

The dangers of a workplace romance are explored to hysterical effect in this romantic comedy. Conditions at the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory are anything but peaceful, as sparks fly between the new superintendent Sid Sorokin and Babe Williams, leader of the union grievance committee. Their stormy relationship comes to a head when the workers strike for a 7<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> - cent pay increase, setting off not only a conflict between management and labor, but a battle of the sexes as well.

Bright and brassy, this unconventional, fast-paced Broadway favorite is every bit the embodiment of legendary director George Abbott at his very best. The energetic score by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross is brimming with songs and dances which have become popular and musical theatre standards including "Hey There," "Steam Heat" and "Hernando's Hideaway."

C A S T

Sid Sorokin: The handsome new factory superintendent who falls in love with Babe.
Catherine "Babe" Williams: The leader of the Union Grievance Committee, who in turn falls in love with Sid.
Myron "Old Man" Hasler: The strict head of the pajama factory who keeps a secret.
Gladys Hotchkiss: Hasler's attractive, quick-witted secretary, who dates Hines and is chased by Prez.
Vernon Hines: The factory tunekeeper, who thinks Gladys flirts too much and, as a result is always jealous.
Prez: The head of the union and a skirt chaser, despite being a married man.
Mabel: The mother hen of the factory and Sid's secretary.
Mae: A loud-mouthed member of the Grievance Committee, who accepts Prez's advances, much to his surprise.
Pop: Babe's kind and agreeable father.
Max: A salesman.
Charley: A worker in the factory and the handyman.
Joe: A factory worker and Prez's right-hand man.
Brenda: A member of the Grievance Committee.
Virginia: A factory girl and union activist.
Poopsie: A factory girl and union activist.
